Most Valuable Career Skills by 2025

Per the annual World Economic Forum report, the most valuable career skills by 2025 will be the following 10 skills:

- 1. Analytical thinking and innovation: In order to find creative solutions, you review new and possibly complicated information, examine that information to ensure it's factual, use reasoning skills to determine if the information follows a logical pattern and determine causes and effects.
- 2. Active learning and learning strategies: Utilizing strategies that work best for you, active learning requires you to evaluate what you know, understand what you need to know and have the initiative to learn that information through various means.
- 3. Complex problem solving: To solve complex problems requires being able to identify the problem, evaluate all pertinent information and factors, consider a range of possible solutions, think critically through different solution options and their potential outcomes, and then make a judgment as to which solution to select. A series of skills go into complex problem solving, including observation skills, analysis, creativity, innovative thinking, evaluation, perseverance, and resilience, to name some.
- 4. Critical thinking and analysis: To think critically is to think deeply. Critical thinking requires that you first suspend judgment to evaluate all related factors and perspectives as objectively as possible. It entails taking time to think through what you might not be considering or yet seeing. Reason, logic, and judgment are all used to analyze and evaluate information to, ultimately, probe far beyond the surface of the matter at hand.
- 5. Resilience, stress tolerance and flexibility: Through self-management, you are able to develop coping mechanisms to overcome and adapt to challenges in a healthy manner. By strengthening the five pillars of resistance- self-awareness, mindfulness, self-care, positive relationship and purpose -you can be more emotionally, mentally and behaviorally flexible and adjust to both the internal and external demands.

6. Creativity, originality and initiative: To be creative is to imagine something new from the information and data available. Creativity emerges from a capacity to view the world differently, connect seemingly disconnected dots, and unearth unseen patterns to conceive something new. To be creative is to apply critical thinking and empathy to imagine experiences, ideas, and things from other perspectives. With your creative skills, you take the initiative to make something original.
7. Leadership and social influence: Through the use of leadership skills-trustworthiness, reliability, organization skills, interpersonal and social skills- you are able to maximize the efforts of those around you towards the accomplishment of a common goal.
8. Reasoning, problem-solving and ideation: In a logical way, you are able to understand the problem and move from a hypothesis to a conclusion. You use information to solve complex problems and generate logical and potential solutions.
9. Technology, design and programming: Utilizing a combination of text, graphics and style elements, you are able to logically and purposefully create new technologies.
10. Technology use, monitoring, and control: technologies Remotely, you are able to monitor and manage technology to ensure it is working properly at all times. If it is not working properly, you are able to utilize problem-solving skills in order to fix it.

Listening Tour Questions

Questions to ask teachers about themselves:

- What are your strengths as a teacher?
- In what ways would you like to grow professionally? What, if anything, has stood in the way of your professional growth and ability to meet goals?
- How can we improve learning for your students?
- How do you hear the voices of your students in your classroom?
- How do you know students are learning in your classroom?
- What has been the most meaningful professional learning experience you've had? Why was it so meaningful to you? How did it help you change instruction?
- Have you been involved in coaching before, and how did you come to get involved in it? What did you think of the experience? How do you feel about having a coach now? (This series of questions will require extra reassurance that the more honest teachers are in their answers, the more they will get out of their experience with you.)
- Is there anything else you feel I should know to help me serve you best as your coach?

Questions to ask teachers about school culture:

- What do you feel is the greatest strength of the school?
- Do you feel your school is growing, evolving, and improving?
- What aspect of the school needs to grow the most and why?
- How do you hear the voices of students in the school?
- How do you hear the voices of parents and the community in the school?
- Is equity important in your school? If so, how is it addressed?
- How do you feel the school prepares students for careers and college?
- How do you feel supported in your professional growth and development? Who or what is most supportive?
- How do you feel about the demands currently placed on you and your colleagues? Are they reasonable or do they feel impossible to meet? Please explain.
- Would you describe the school as one that sticks with a few initiatives or one that cycles through many initiatives? Please explain.
- What resources are you most grateful to have? What resources do you wish you had?
