

Listening Tour Questions

Questions to ask teachers about themselves:

- What are your strengths as a teacher?
- In what ways would you like to grow professionally? What, if anything, has stood in the way of your professional growth and ability to meet goals?
- How can we improve learning for your students?
- How do you hear the voices of your students in your classroom?
- How do you know students are learning in your classroom?
- What has been the most meaningful professional learning experience you've had? Why was it so meaningful to you? How did it help you change instruction?
- Have you been involved in coaching before, and how did you come to get involved in it? What did you think of the experience? How do you feel about having a coach now? (This series of questions will require extra reassurance that the more honest teachers are in their answers, the more they will get out of their experience with you.)
- Is there anything else you feel I should know to help me serve you best as your coach?

Questions to ask teachers about school culture:

- What do you feel is the greatest strength of the school?
- Do you feel your school is growing, evolving, and improving?
- What aspect of the school needs to grow the most and why?
- How do you hear the voices of students in the school?
- How do you hear the voices of parents and the community in the school?
- Is equity important in your school? If so, how is it addressed?
- How do you feel the school prepares students for careers and college?
- How do you feel supported in your professional growth and development? Who or what is most supportive?
- How do you feel about the demands currently placed on you and your colleagues? Are they reasonable or do they feel impossible to meet? Please explain.
- Would you describe the school as one that sticks with a few initiatives or one that cycles through many initiatives? Please explain.
- What resources are you most grateful to have? What resources do you wish you had?

Questions to ask students about their learning:

- Do your classes feel hard to you? If they are hard, what makes them hard? If they are easy, what makes them easy?
- Do you know why you're learning what you're learning?
- Do you think what you are learning will be helpful to you in your future, while you're still in school, and after you've graduated?
- Do you feel that your school values and rewards academics or sports or both? Or something else?
- Are your learning successes celebrated? If so, how?
- When you are in a class where you are having fun, being challenged, and learning a lot, what about the class makes it so engaging?
- When you are bored in school, why are you bored?

Questions to ask students about school culture:

- What makes you most proud to be a student at this school?
- If you could change something about the school, what would it be?
- Do you think that the school tries to give the same opportunities to all different kinds of students? Why?
- When students have ideas, do you feel that the adults in your school are open to hearing and considering them?

Questions to ask parents/guardians about their child's learning:

- Is your child's learning rigorous, where rigor can be defined as requiring complex and deep modes of thinking (e.g., analyzing, synthesizing, and/or evaluating information; creating new ideas, concepts, solutions, etc.)? If yes, what makes it rigorous?
- How relevant is your child's learning to her future? Please explain.
- How is your child academically supported at school?
- Is your child engaged in school?
- Is your child learning interpersonal/social-emotional skills and today's career skills? If yes, how are these skills taught, and which ones are taught?
